The Era of Self Confidence

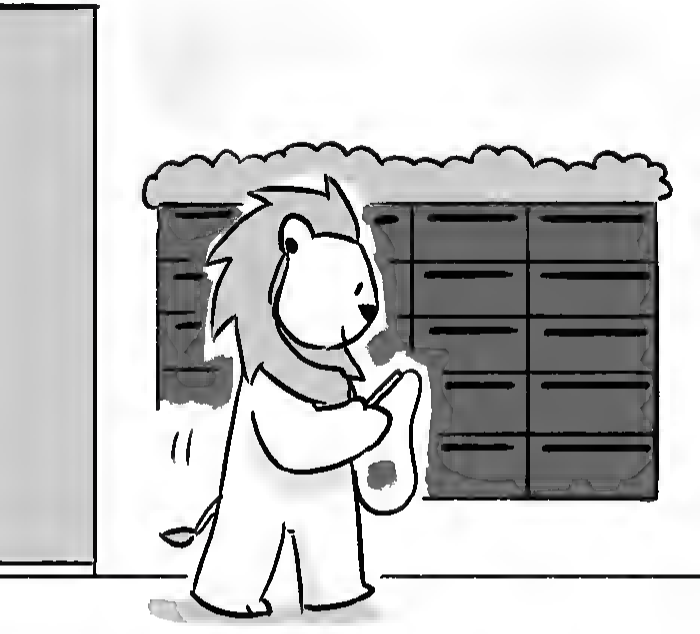
In this era where the Self is the focus



There is a common trend of being confident

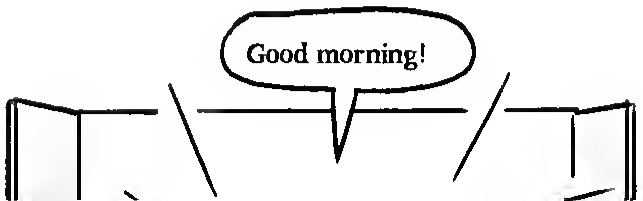
Everyone has their own interpretation of being "confident"...



Good morning Leo!

...So self confidence can be very subjective term.

Some have a lot of self confidence

On the other hand,

some have little self confidence

Too much confidence and too little confidence are neither healthy...

So like Master Elephunk always says...

balance is the key.
